

U.S. CITIZENSHIP ESL

INTERCULTURAL INSTITUTE OF CALIFORNIA

ABOUT IIC

The Intercultural Institute of California (IIC), a non-profit organization of the Korean Center Incorporated (KCI), has partnered with the Korean Community Center of the East Bay (KCCEB) to provide a full-service citizenship preparation program for lawful permanent residents of the Bay Area that seek to become U.S. citizens. Our program is sponsored by the Department of Homeland Security and our administrators are accredited by the Department of Justice to offer legal advice regarding immigration and the citizenship preparation.

IIC is accredited by CEA and upholds its standards of excellence in English Language teaching and administration. CEA is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education as a national accrediting agency specializing in the accreditation of English Language programs.
